Julie Moltmann has been employed as a Registered Nurse at the Royal Hobart Hospital since 2001 she was also a member of a working group that developed protocols for the management of inpatients with eating disorders admitted to the Paediatric Unit of The Royal Hobart Hospital.

Since 2010, Julie has been the Paediatric Eating Disorder Clinical Nurse Specialist working in both the inpatient and outpatient settings at The Royal Hobart Hospital.

Julie is responsible for co-ordinating the service and works within a multidisciplinary team led by Dr Michelle Williams and Dr Fiona Wagg.

Julie has attended both national and international conferences on Eating Disorders. In 2013, Julie presented a poster at the Australian and New Zealand Academy of Eating Disorders (ANZAED) conference and presented a paper at the ANZAED workshop in Hobart in 2014.

ends#

To coordinate an interview with Julie, please contact Kirsten Bruce, Mark Henderson or Claire Wright from VIVA! Communications on 0401 717 566 / 0431 465 004 / 0467 415 617.